R-3 Judicial Inquiry – January 2010 Expense Report

Mayor Hazel McCallion had declared conflict of interest at the start of the meeting as it related to the Judicial Inquiry and left the Council Chambers. Councillor Pat Saito, Acting Mayor, took the Chair.

All matters relating to the Judicial Inquiry were dealt with together (Corporate Report R-3, Notice of Motion and Correspondence I-9).

Councillor Katie Mahoney moved receipt of the above report.

Carried
MG.01.Jud/FA.19.Jud
Councillor Katie Mahoney expressed concern that the costs to date were escalating when the inquiry had not yet begun. She also expressed concern that staff time had not been accounted for in the monthly Expense Reports.

Mary Ellen Bench explained that the Judicial Inquiry was already in progress and that they were in the investigatory segment at this point. She indicated that the estimated cost was still appropriate.

Councillor Katie Mahoney moved a motion that the estimated cost for staff time be included in all future monthly reports.

Councillor Eve Adams moved an amendment that for comparison purposes, a report also come to Council on the costs of OMB hearings for the last three years. Councillor Katie Mahoney did not support the amendment to her motion as she did not feel it to be relevant to the Judicial Inquiry costs.

0041-2010 Moved by: K. Mahoney Seconded by: P. Mullin

That subsequent expense reports for the Judicial Inquiry include a calculation of staff costs to date.

NOTICE OF MOTION

Since the Notion of Motion also related to the Judicial Inquiry, the matter was dealt with at this time.

Councillor Carolyn Parrish explained the purpose for her Notice of Motion. She advised that it was brought to her attention that since Peter McCallion is neither an employee nor an elected official, paying for his legal fees could be precedent setting on any future judicial inquiry in the Province.

0042-2010 Moved by: C. Parrish Seconded by: N. Iannicca

Whereas Council approved funding criteria for parties granted standing in the Mississauga Judicial Inquiry;

And whereas Council approved funding for Peter McCallion, based on a set of criteria which include his providing sufficient evidence that he is unable to retain legal representation due to insufficient income and no access to assets;

And whereas Council approved Peter McCallion’s being represented by legal counsel as per the approved guidelines for hours and fees only while Mr. McCallion is actually giving testimony at the Inquiry;

And whereas Council has withheld a decision on further legal funding for Mr. McCallion until such time as the Inquiry is concluded;

And whereas new information has come to light which reveals that a municipality’s providing legal funding for persons other than employees and elected officials in a Judicial Inquiry, is precedent setting;

Therefore be it resolved that Resolution 0032-2010 be reopened at the Council Meeting to be held Wednesday, February 24, 2010.

MG.01.Jud

Mary Ellen Bench, City Solicitor, addressed this issue drawing reference to the Bellamy and Sills Inquiry but noted that in this case the individual is not an employee. Also, she reminded that ability to pay is a criteria that has been referred to in her previous reports (October 2009 and February 2010), the Bellamy and the Sills Inquiries as well as by this Inquiry Commissioner. She explained that what is different in this case is that the individual is not an employee. Also, she advised that the report which Council dealt with on February 10, 2010, recommended retaining a Solicitor, Mr. William Woloshyn, to independently make assessments on fee reimbursement.
Councillor Carolyn Parrish asked questions relating to criteria for financial need.

Discussion for the purposes of clarification took place with respect to third party funding.

Council also received Correspondence I-9 (Letter dated February 22, 2010 from Stockwoods, Barristers, with respect to the Mississauga Judicial Inquiry, Resolution 0032-2010 and Notice of Reconsideration of Resolution 0032-2010.)

The following motion was voted on and carried.

0043-2010 Moved by: C. Parrish     Seconded by: E. Adams

That Legal Services prepare a written response to questions raised by Council in respect to resolution 0032-2010 regarding legal funding for Peter McCallion.
