(b) Corporate Report – Request to the Benares Endowment Fund Reserve for Artifact Conservation Initiative

Annemarie Hagan, Museums Manager, discussed the formalization of the request explaining that HST had been added to the original dollar amount and that the monies would be transferred to a Capital account that Ms. Hagan would be able to access.

Fred Durdan, Citizen Member, noted that the Friends of the Museums of Mississauga did not approve funding this request from their own funds, but did support using Benares Endowment Funds for it. Discussion ensued with respect to whether there should be a process in place to determine whether an artifact was worthy of restoring. Ms. Hagan explained that the project had MOMAC and Friends of the Museums of Mississauga endorsement and that staff had assessed the artifact and deemed it worthy. Ms. Hagan confirmed that as per the corporate report, there will be approximately $116,000 in the Benares Endowment Fund after funding this project.

(d) Museums of Mississauga – Draft Vision and Mission Statements

Review and discussion of the draft vision and mission statements as developed by the Collections and Storage Subcommittee (CASS).

Jeremy Harvey, Citizen Member and Chair, led a discussion with respect to the draft vision, summarizing the process, the input from MOMAC and CASS members, the input from staff and presented the draft vision to the Committee.

Discussion ensued with regard to the wording of the vision, as it was generally felt among Committee members that the statement should not be personalized, but more factual. The Committee continued discussion with regard to amending the draft vision and there was general consensus that the vision should demonstrate MOMAC's understanding that Mississauga is growing and has diverse communities and that Museums have a role in connecting those communities - not just the original historic villages, but cultures as well.

The Committee agreed that the amended vision needed to go back to staff for feedback and there was general consensus that the amended draft vision would read as follows:

To preserve our past and connect our communities to Mississauga's ongoing 10K year history. An innovative/ rich cultural destination.

It was recommended that MOMAC endorse the draft vision as amended, send it to staff in the Culture Division for feedback, and bring it back to MOMAC at the June meeting.

That the Museums of Mississauga Draft Vision Statement, as amended by the Committee, be received.

APPROVAL OF AGENDA – W. Davies, Citizen Member, MOMAC

MATTERS TO BE CONSIDERED

1. Draft Report of Previous Meeting

Report from the previous CASS meeting held on April 17, 2012 was reviewed by the CASS Subcommittee.

RECEIVED: B. Ryder, Museums Collections Volunteer

2. Update from Collections & Exhibit Supervisor

Report dated June 5, 2012 from Stephanie Meeuwse, Collections & Exhibit Supervisor, was reviewed and discussed by Subcommittee Members. A question with respect to whether the attendance at specific exhibits was undertaken as a measurement of success and Ms. Meeuwse indicated that there was nothing formal in place at this time but that visitor attendance was tracked, but it was not specific to particular displays.

RECEIVED: W. Davies, Citizen Member, MOMAC

3. Verbal Update from Museums Manager

Annemarie Hagan, Museums Manager, provided a verbal update to the Subcommittee with respect to the Culture Division, the Museums of Mississauga and future directions.

Prior to Ms. Hagan's update, she presented a video entitled, Mississauga: From the "Cinderella Township" to "Canada's Sixth Largest City".

(<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7yyCWVoR4gE>)

In 2011 Doors Open Mississauga revisited the 1957 promotional film, "The Cinderella Township". The film was created by the Township of Toronto to attract new industries and residents to the area. In 2011 the film was re-mastered to include contemporary footage of the city and documents the period of infrastructure and industrial development that Mississauga has undergone in the past fifty years.

Ms Hagan then discussed the changing contexts affecting Museums of Mississauga, including moving to the Culture Division in 2009 and the hiring of a Manager of Culture Operations in January 2012. Ms. Hagan noted that there is solid support for the CASS objectives and expressed that the Subcommittee may need to consider a change in the approach to reach their goals in the future to reflect the aforementioned changing contexts. Dealing with the key challenge of solving the shortage of collection storage space has not changed in any way.

Ms. Hagan mentioned that she had recently attended a presentation by Claire Lougheed, the new director of the former Peel Heritage Complex, which is now called the Peel Art Gallery, Museum and Archives (PAMA). It is owned and operated by the Region of Peel and it includes an art gallery, museum, and archives. Based on Claire's presentation, it has become more apparent that the Region of Peel's new Strategic Plan and goals, and PAMA's mandate provide some interesting partnership opportunities for the Museums of Mississauga, MOMAC and CASS. Ms. Hagan noted that Claire Lougheed, Manager of Peel Art Gallery, Museums and Archives would be attending the June 18, 2012 Museums of Mississauga Advisory Committee meeting to make a deputation with respect to PAMA and its expansion and new strategic plan.

Andrew Whittmore, Manager, Culture Operations, explained that funding partners are looking for something unique for Mississauga, and are unlikely to support something that duplicates others. This presents an opportunity for the community to build a unique story of Mississauga. Mr. Whittmore noted that there is solid commitment to solve the collection storage problem, and the goal is to create the best possible solution that positions the City for funding. He suggested that there are different operating models, as the Feasibility Study suggests – including renting storage space on a short term basis for artifacts. Ms. Hagan agreed that rental storage was a reasonable option to consider and there was general consensus amongst Members that the preservation of the current collection was the first priority, although there was some concern that the project may not move forward as rental storage is a temporary solution. Ms. Hagan emphasized the need for additional staff resources to support the growing collection, and also the potential to revisit the five thematic collection areas identified in the Artifact Preservation Storage Facility Feasibility Study.

The Subcommittee discussed the need for a better, creative solution and the need to have a strategic plan to be able to measure and evaluate options. Mr. Whittmore explained that staff would be revising the project charter to reflect the need for defining a solid vision and a commitment to the ongoing contribution of MOMAC and CASS in the process. There was general agreement that more discussion was needed.

Ms. Hagan noted that Fred Durdan, Citizen Member, MOMAC, made a deputation to Council with respect to the work that the Friends of the Museums of Mississauga was doing. Ms. Hagan also noted that there would be an event on June 24, 2012 at Fleetwood Park with Councillor Fonseca with a Rebellion of 1837 theme, and expressed a need for volunteers to be "Rebels" at the event.

4. Memorandum: Amended 2012 Collection and Artifact Storage Subcommittee Meeting Dates

with respect to the amended CASS meeting dates for the remainder of 2012.

Two days later, 317 people enjoyed the Friend's Gallery in the Garden and Strawberry Social at Benares, featuring over thirty local artists and artisans.
Educational and Pre-Registered Programs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Our new 'Downton Abbey Tea and Tours', which highlight parallels between the two Edwardian era houses and their inhabitants is completely sold out through to the end of August, and we have taken some extra special group bookings, including a group from Christchurch United who came dressed in costume. We also held two Mother and Daughter Teas and two Spa Workshop to learn to make your own natural treatments. • We have begun to liaise to schools that have been identified by the Peel District School Board as being "High Risk" to offer them free curriculum based educational museum programs and busses thanks to the grant received by the Friends of the Museums of Mississauga from SUNCOR. So far the schools have been very receptive and we have the first ones visiting Bradley Museum in mid-June. • In June 2011 we had 2 schools visit the Museums for educational programming; in 2012 we have 9 school bookings, which speaks to the success of our new approaches to promotion.

Update on Capital Projects at the Museums of Mississauga
as of June 10th, 2012

PROJECT	DETAILS
Benares Summer Kitchen Project	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The “window” in the floor of the summer kitchen is the last outstanding item in the project. The Summer Kitchen Task Force met on March 27th with the Canadian installer of Jockimo Crystal Clear – Glass Grit that was used in a similar manner at the new Waterloo Region Museum. • We have received updated prices from the installer and Jockimo, as well as an updated sketch. The good, and unexpected news is that we now believe that the project can be done within the original remaining Benares Endowment Fund budget ($8,000). • We are awaiting approval from the Ontario Heritage Trust (expected within six weeks) and then will move ahead with ordering the glass and doing the installation. Expect completion by October 2012.
Facility and Property Maintenance (FPM) Capital Projects at Bradley	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Emergency roof repairs on the Bradley Barn were completed the week after Maple Magic. Shortly after that, some mould was discovered in the washrooms in the barn, and within days removed and repairs completed. • The Museums Manager continues to be part of the project team for the major project at the Anchorage to include an upgrade of all mechanical systems, refinishing of floors on the main floor; and replacement of the roof. A report went to the Heritage Advisory Committee in May and the work which has been planned and designed by Ventin Group Architects was approved (see Items for Information). Bids on the project closed May 29, and construction is to start September 1st, with substantial completion November 1st. • Note that the replacement of the HVAC system includes adding a Liebert Unit (museums quality environmental controls) to the collection storage room in the basement of the Anchorage. The quilt storage unit will be moved to the Maid’s room on the main floor of Benares Historic House over the summer/fall to allow for this construction work. • Due to the extensive work on the building during this project, the five staff who have offices in the Anchorage will need to be relocated to the Log Cabin at Bradley Museum (and one to the Benares Visitor Centre) for the months of September and October, the exhibit in the main floor galleries will be removed, and the Anchorage will be closed to the public. Admissions and gift shop will be relocated to the Log Cabin and school and other programming will continue on site using the barn, drive-shed and Bradley House.
(FPM) Capital Projects at Benares	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ATA Architects Inc. has been working with FPM on the development of a Building Condition Assessment of the Benares site, and Museum staff had a chance to meet with them for input, and this report is now complete. • In tandem with this, ATA also did the work on a major project at Benares to plan to repaint all exterior woodwork, repoint the 4 chimneys, repoint the bake oven and repair the balcony door. This work has been

	approved by both the Heritage Advisory Committee (due to Benares' designation under the Ontario Heritage Act) and the Ontario Heritage Trust (due to the Heritage Easement held on Benares by the Trust). <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The project has been awarded to Universal Engineered Restoration, and the Museums Manager is part of the team that is meeting biweekly on site to review progress on the project. They are working around the On the Verandah Concerts, as well as the Day Camps that will be on site as of July 1st.

JUN 18 2012

DATE: May 1, 2012

TO: Chair and Members of the Heritage Advisory Committee
Meeting Date: May 22, 2012

FROM: Paul A. Mitcham, P.Eng, MBA
Commissioner of Community Services

SUBJECT: Request to Alter a Heritage Designated Property
The Anchorage
1620 Orr Road
(Ward 2)

RECOMMENDATION: That the request to alter the Anchorage, 1620 Orr Road, as described in the report from the Commissioner of Community Services, dated May 1, 2012, be approved.

BACKGROUND: James W. Taylor built the subject dwelling in the 1830s. John Skynner, the subsequent owner, a retired Royal Navy Commander, dubbed it "The Anchorage." The City moved it from its original site, on the shores of Lake Ontario, in the mid 1970s. The building now forms part of the Museums of Mississauga.

COMMENTS: The Ventin Group Ltd. has submitted a heritage permit application, on behalf of the City's Facilities and Property Management Division, to upgrade the HVAC system and repair the roof. (The design report and drawings are attached as appendices 1 and 2 respectively.)

The roof repairs include the re-sheathing of the dormers and the introduction of two new roof vents. Since the siding and shingles will be replaced with wood and cedar respectively, as per the existing materials, and the vents are minor, staff have no concerns with this repair.

The new HVAC system requires a 10 x 24 inch wide aluminium fresh air louvre on the east elevation. Because this is a minimal intervention, staff recommend that it be approved.

FINANCIAL IMPACT: There is no financial impact

CONCLUSION: The City's Facilities and Property Management Division proposes some minor changes to the Anchorage building at the Bradley Museum site. Because the proposed interventions are minimal, the heritage permit should be approved.

1.0 INTRODUCTION

The Ventin Group (Toronto) Ltd. Architects (+VG) was retained by the City of Mississauga in January 2012 to provide professional architectural and engineering services for the design of:

- a new mechanical HVAC system,
- replacement of existing cedar shingle roofing and associated flashings and dormer siding
- and flooring improvements for The Anchorage, located at the Bradley Museum site at 1620 Orr Road in Mississauga.

1.2 A BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE BUILDING

This Regency style cottage was originally built in the 1820s near Southdown and Lakeshore Roads. It was named "The Anchorage" by its second inhabitant, Retired British Navy Commander John Skynner (1762 -1846) who settled at Merigold's Point in 1838. The building is thought to be built by James W. Taylor and was originally located on land that was granted to the Jarvis family. It was used by several residents after Skynner and used by the office of National Sewer Pipe Company. The National Sewer Pipe Company donated the house to the City of Mississauga and in June 1978 the building was moved to the Bradley site. After several years of fundraising and restoration the building was opened to public in 1991 and is used as a visitor centre for the Bradley Museum site.

Description: (excerpted from the City of Mississauga, Property & Tax Database)

This one and a half storey structure is basically rectangular in plan with a small enclosed porch to the rear and an accretion to the west side. A full basement underlies the first floor. The medium pitched hipped roof has large eaves, underneath which, the rafters show. There are two internally bracketed brick chimneys on either side of the house. The foundation was constructed when the building was moved to this location. The building is sheathed in clapboard. There are two segmental windows on either side of the front door. A twelve over twelve pane, double hung window appears on the western addition, but most other windows have only eighteen panes in total. Hipped gable dormers in pairs appear on all four sides of the roof, these were a later addition. The building underwent extensive rehabilitation in 1993, reclaiming most of the original features of the structure. The building was retrofitted in 1993 and became the visitor centre for the Bradley Museum.

Designation Statement:

Architecturally, The Anchorage is a particularly fine example of an Ontario Regency style house with its one-and-a-half storey height, five-bay facade, square plan and hipped roof with broad projecting eaves. It has a fine Neo-classical doorcase with sidelights and engaged pilasters. Interior features of importance include the room layout on the ground floor, the mid-19th century centre arch in the hall and staircase to the second floor, an original mantelpiece and original base boards and trim.

Historically, the house, a prominent local landmark, was built in the 1830s by James. W. Taylor, but given the name "The Anchorage" by its next owner John Skynner, a retired Commander of the Royal Navy.

2.0 GENERAL OBSERVATIONS AND DESIGN ASSUMPTIONS

2.1 ROOF

2.1.1 Cedar Shingle Roof

The cedar shingle roof is in poor condition on the south side due to damp conditions and associated biological growth. Replacement of the cedar shingle roof is part of the project scope. The introduction of ventilation battens is required to improve the roof's ability to dry. Trees along the south side of the building should be cut back substantially to improve the roof's exposure to sunlight and the associated benefits to drying of the roof.

A continuous waterproofing membrane will be applied to the existing plywood roof sheathing prior to batten and shingle installation providing immediate water protection. It is expected that some of the sheathing will need to be replaced. An assumption of 10% replacement will be specified.

2.1.2 Flashings & Eavestroughs

Existing painted galvanized eavestrough appears in generally sound condition. Metal should be stripped of all paint, cleaned and repainted. Some wholesale replacement is required along the south side of the roof where replacement aluminum trough had been used and is fully corroded. Replacement trough should match the existing in size, gauge and profile.

It should be noted that leaves and debris have not been cleaned out of the eavestrough which will adversely affect performance and longevity of the trough.

Roof flashings will be copper and proper cant separation is required to avoid water being trapped between the cedar and the copper that can lead to corrosion of copper due to high acid content in the cedar.

2.1.3 Dormers

Roof dormers are in poor condition with noticeable deterioration of the siding material in a number of locations. Wholesale replacement of the siding at the dormers will be specified as part of the roof replacement scope.

As part of the dormer rebuild, opportunities for additional insulation within the sidewalls will be reviewed.

Eavestrough Corrosion

2.2 FLOOR

2.2.1 Wood Plank Flooring

The original pine wood flooring has been re-sanded numerous times. The floor planks have been sanded to a point where gaps are evident between the planks and the tongue of the plank is visible. These floors cannot be re-sanded. Localized replacement of planks has occurred and metal strips have been installed at locations where gaps were presenting a trip hazard. In general, the floor is at the end of its useful life.

The project scope does not anticipate wholesale replacement of the wood flooring. Areas exhibiting significant gaps or damage will be replaced in a similar manner to previous repairs/patches. The entire wood floor can be refinished by removal of existing polyurethane finish and reapplication of two coats of polyurethane. The refinishing will protect the wood but will not conceal or remove imperfections within the surface of the wood.

Maintenance staff has identified a concern with foot traffic in winter months through the main entry hall area. The current use of traffic mats appears to be ineffective and unable to handle the water brought in by 20-30 students on field trips to the site. This abuse is likely to deteriorate any refinished surface in this area in fairly short order. The use of more substantial rubber mats may alleviate the amount of abuse or alternatively installation of new sheet flooring over the existing plank floor is proposed for the entry hall to address the high-traffic concern.

Sheet Flooring Alternatives:

1. Linoleum with welded seams such as Forbo Marmoleum.

2. Vinyl sheet flooring with welded seams such as Altro Designer 25.
3. Rubber sheet flooring with welded seams such as Mondo Harmoni.

2.2.2 Carpet

The project scope includes for the provision of new carpet in the south east office area on the main floor. The irregularities of the wood floor deck in this area create problems for staff using chairs with castors. Provision of new ¼" plywood underlayment and new carpet tile will be specified for this area. Some areas of localized shimming may be required to reduce the slope of the existing floor structure.

The project scope had indicated carpet replacement at the second floor area. Upon review of the building, we do not recommend replacement of this carpet at this time. The carpet appears to be in generally good condition. General carpet cleaning should be able to address the localized stains and this floor appears to have another 4 or 5 years of wear life.

Office Area to receive new carpet

2.3 HEATING, VENTILATION AND AIR CONDITIONING

The entire building will be heated and cooled using two new high-efficiency modulating gas-fired furnaces except for the Artifacts Storage Room.

One 4 ton cooling and 100 MBH heating capacity furnace will be specified serving the ground floor and a portion of the basement of the building and one 3 ton cooling and 60 MBH heating capacity furnace will serve the second floor of the Building. Furnaces will be located in the basement and condensing units will be located outside in the existing enclosure on the east side of the building. Condensing units will have two compressors each.

Fresh air to the furnaces will be provided by an ERV with 500 cfm capacity. The existing fresh air intake louvre will be used for exhaust and a new fresh air intake louvre will be provided in the east wall of the closet on the ground floor.

Combustion air and vent pipes for the furnaces will be located on the east wall at the "area well" and will extend up on the wall above the area well.

Motorized dampers will be provided on the ducts serving the ground floor office area and south side of the second floor to provide additional control of the zones at these levels.

A 2-ton Liebert type unit will be provided for the Artifacts Storage Room to maintain $22^{\circ}\text{C} \pm 1^{\circ}\text{C}$ temperature and $45\% \pm 5\%$ humidity in this room. The unit will be vertical and mounted on the floor of the room.

New gas service will be provided to this building. The location of the gas meter is being discussed with Enbridge. The new gas line and associated meter will be installed directly by Enbridge Gas.

It has been determined that the existing ductwork serving the 2nd floor is undersized to meet contemporary ventilation requirements. This ductwork needs to be replaced or supplemented. Access to the existing ductwork will require cutting large openings in the knee walls of the 2nd floor to provide physical access to the perimeter roof space. Given the 'finished nature' of this space and the budget limitations, it is proposed to supplement the existing ductwork with new ductwork introduced within the main roof attic above the ceiling of the 2nd floor. This approach minimizes 'cut and patch' activities in the 2nd floor finished spaces.

ON THE VERANDAH AT BENARES HISTORIC HOUSE A QUEEN'S DIAMOND JUBILEE SPECIAL CONCERT –
PRESENTED BY THE CHOIRS OF ST. PETER'S ERINDALE
FRIDAY, JUNE 1, 2012 AT 7:30 P.M.

The Friends of the Museums of Mississauga will launch their 2012 "On the Verandah" Friday night concert series with a special tribute to the Queen's Diamond Jubilee with a rousing and patriotic "Last Night of the Proms" concert presented by the Choirs of St. Peter's Erindale.

Last Night of the Proms, based on an annual tradition in London, England, features an audience sing-a-long of such favourites as Rule Britannia, Jerusalem and others, in addition to pieces played by the orchestra. Last Night of the Proms attempts to recapture some of this, and includes several favourite pieces from around the U.K. and Commonwealth.

Everyone is encouraged to dress in red, white and blue attire and to bring their singing voices – we'll provide the Union Jacks to wave! Bring your lawn-chairs or blankets.
