

ONe-Source

Thanks to a recent collaboration of government service a new website called ONe-source for Business was launched by the provincial government where you can get access to government information and services online 24/7. ONe-Source has been designed to make life easier for pre-start up to established businesses. By registering with One-Source you can keep track of your relationships and accounts with various government programs making it easier to know where you stand with compliance on a variety of programs and ONe-Source can provide information on topics such as funding, grants and incentives; government publications, and forms

Selling to Government

Did you know that every year the government buys billions of dollars of goods and services from companies across Canada? The government purchases a full range of items from consulting services to computers and much more. Doing business with government is not just for big business. Contracts are awarded to businesses of all sizes, with a significant number of contracts awarded to businesses with less than 50 employees.
