

Summer Programs
for Teens

At Central Library

Summer Programs for Teens
‘Things You (Probably) Didn't Know About the Victorians’
A Visit by Y.S. Lee

Join Canadian writer Y.S. Lee, author of The Agency series for young adults, for a reading of her work, book signing and special presentation on Victorian social history. Y.S. Lee lives in Kingston, Ontario, and holds a PhD in Victorian literature and culture. Her first book, A Spy in the House, was nominated for the 2011 Forest of Reading's Red Maple award.

Mississauga Central Library
301 Burnhamthorpe Road W.
Ground Floor Program Room
Saturday, August 27, 2011
2 p.m. – 4 p.m.

Admission is free. Ages: 12Y-19Y. Space is limited to 40 participants.
For more information, please call 905-615-3200 ext. 3544.

