Lost Summer of Louisa May Alcott, The

by McNees, Kelly O'Connor (Author)

UNABRIDGED CD: 7 CDs / 9 Hours. Millions of readers have fallen in love with LITTLE WOMEN. But how could Louisa May Alcott - who never had a romance - write so convincingly of love and heartbreak without experiencing it herself? Deftly mixing fact and fiction, Kelly O'Connor McNees imagines a love affair that would threaten Louisa's writing career - and inspire the story of Jo and Laurie in LITTLE WOMEN. Stuck in a small town in New Hampshire in 1855, Louisa finds herself torn between a love that takes her by surprise and her dream of independence as a writer in Boston. The choice comes with a steep price.

My Fair Lazy Unabridged CDs

by Lancaster, Jen (Author)

UNABRIDGED CD. Suggested Can. price $33.00. The author of PRETTY IN PLAID gets her culture on. Readers have followed Jen Lancaster through job loss, weight loss, and 1980s nostalgia. Now Jen chronicles her efforts to achieve cultural enlightenment, with some hilarious missteps and genuine moments of inspiration along the way. And she does so by any means necessary: reading canonical literature, viewing classic films, attending the opera, researching artisan cheeses, and even enrolling in etiquette classes to improve her social graces. Eliza Doolittle's got nothing on Jen Lancaster - and failure IS an option.

News Where You Are, The

by O'Flynn, Catherine (Author)

UNABRIDGED CD: Suggested Can. price $35.95. This tells the story of Frank, a local TV news presenter in England. Beneath his awkwardly corny screen persona, Frank is haunted by disappearances: the mysterious hit-and-run that killed his predecessor Phil Smethway; the demolition of his father's post-war architecture; and the unmarked passing of those who die alone in the city. Frank struggles to make sense of these absences whilst having to report endless local news stories and trying to cope with his resolutely miserable mother. A heartbreaking, yet hilarious, novel from the author of the prize-winning WHAT WAS LOST.
