Strange things have been going on in the mountains near Baggs, Wyoming, and game warden Joe Pickett's conscience won't let him leave his temporary post without checking it out. Joe doesn't mind admitting that the farther he rides on the trail, the more he wishes he could just turn around and go home. He is right to be concerned, because what awaits him is like nothing he's ever dealt with, like something out of an old story, except this is all too real and deadly. Previous titles in the series include: BELOW ZERO and BLOOD TRAIL.

FP 6,000 (CAN.) The year is 1799, the place Dejima, a man-made island that is the Japanese Empire's single port and sole window to the world. To this place comes Jacob de Zoet, a young, devout and ambitious clerk who must spend five years in the East to earn enough money to deserve the hand of his wealthy fiancée. This panoramic novel brings to vivid life the tottering of the Dutch maritime empire, the seizing-up of the Shogun's dynasty, the encroachment of British ambitions, and the people caught up a tectonic shift between East and West. This is an unforgettable book that will be read for years to come.

Time's Legacy

by Erskine, Barbara (Author)

Barbara Erskine returns with this beautiful and haunting tale of dark forces and mystical powers. In present-day Cambridge, Abi, a recently-ordained priest of the Church of England, is appointed to a notoriously difficult parish. The priest in charge is the charismatic but fundamentalist Kier. He objects to her mysticism, her practice of healing in particular. When she sees a vision of a congregation in an old church, Kier accuses her of witchcraft, but Abi soon sees more visions; an entire Roman family history, dark with betrayal and a promise of bloody revenge. From the author of DAUGHTERS OF FIRE and THE WARRIOR'S PRINCESS.

Unfinished Score

by Blackwell, Elise (Author)

Suzanne hears on the radio that a jetliner has crashed and her lover is dead. Alex Elling was a renowned orchestra conductor. Suzanne is a concert violist, long unsatisfied with her marriage to a composer whose music turns emotion into thought. Now, more alone than she's ever been, she must grieve secretly. But as complex as that effort is, it pales with the arrival of Alex's widow, who blackmails her into completing the score for Alex's unfinished viola concerto. A psychologically compelling novel of love, loss, sex, class and betrayal from the author of GRUB, HUNGER and THE UNNATURAL HISTORY OF CYPRESS PARISH.

War Memoir of HRH Wallis, Duchess of Windsor, Theby Auspitz, Katherine (Author);

Was it the greatest love story of the twentieth century or a bloodless coup? The memoir, apparently found in her former Paris home, is said to have been written in the Duchess's own hand. Kate Auspitz, a meticulous academic/historian supplies twenty-six pages of footnotes that ground the story firmly in published recollections of the major figures of the time. The plot rests on little known historic details that make Wallis's role in the events entirely plausible...A captivating novel about one of the most reviled women in history and one who continues to fascinate readers.
