MORE TRANSIT SERVICE ON LAKESHORE ROAD

Mississauga's transit system – MiWay – is introducing improvements to its weekend service effective July 4, 2011.

Route 23-Lakeshore will provide more frequent service on weekends with buses departing stops every 19 minutes on Saturdays and 25 minutes on Sundays, to reduce wait time for customers.

Weekday service on Route 23 will also be more frequent with buses departing stops every 14-15 minutes during rush hours and every 19 minutes during the midday.

Other weekend service improvements include:

- Saturday service hours extended on Route 1C-Dundas-Collegeway; Routes 1 and 1C will provide an improved 23-minute combined service frequency at stops along Dundas Street, between Mississauga Road and the Islington Subway Station.

- More frequent Saturday and Sunday service on Route 61-Mavis based on a new route design. Route 61 will now travel between the City Centre Transit Terminal and Financial Drive.
- A new Route 91-Hillcrest will travel between the City Centre Transit Terminal and Mavis Road/Dundas Street on Saturdays and Sundays, with buses departing stops every 40 minutes.

Weekday service improvements, effective Monday, July 4, 2011, include a new route design and schedule for Route 109-Meadowvale Express to provide faster trip times between the Meadowvale Town Centre and the City Centre Transit Terminal while continuing to serve customers travelling to and from the Islington Subway Station.
