

Biography

Derek Boyce

Derek has worked for the City of Mississauga since 2004, and has held various positions in the organization with a focus on business and strategic planning. Derek holds a Master's in Public Policy and Administration, as well as an Honours Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, International Trade Specialization. Derek is married and has 3 children. He resides in Brampton, Ontario. During his spare time, Derek is active in the Canadian basketball community.