

Raj Sheth, Commissioner of Community Services

Sheth joined the City of Mississauga in 1995 as a Project Manager and has subsequently held several leadership positions within the Facilities and Property Management Division. During this career, he has led the development and redevelopment of much of the City's community services, transit and administration buildings and facilities. He spent almost four years as Director, Building Construction at the City of Brampton before returning to the City of Mississauga in 2007. As Director of Facilities and Property Management, which he has held for over a decade, he led all aspects of strategic facilities management including capital, operations, maintenance, corporate security, energy management, realty services and asset management. In his most recent role as Commissioner of Corporate Services, Sheth oversaw Facilities and Planning and Development; Legislative Services/Office of the City Clerk; Information Technology; Corporate Business Services and Enforcement.

Sheth has a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering as well as a Masters Certificate in Municipal Leadership from the Schulich School of Business at York University. He is a member of the Professional Engineers of Ontario and the National Executive Forum on Public Property.
