Take Notice that the Council of The Corporation of the City of Mississauga intends to pass a by-law under Section 29 of the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1990, Chapter 0.18, to designate the lands and premises located at 1764 Lakeshore Road West in the City of Mississauga, in the Province of Ontario as of July 29, 2026 (HAC-0054-2026).

1764 Lakeshore Road West is a building on the south side of Lakeshore Road West on the east side of Clarkson Road South.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The property has historical, associative and contextual value.

The property has historical and associative value as it served the social and religious needs of the Clarkson community. Volunteers erected the church on land donated by area pioneer Margaret Merigold. It was a Methodist church named for Merigold's friend Bishop Albert Carman. As was often the case during this time, because there were few other nearby churches, Carman Church became informally multidenominational. As such, it was the heart of the community so much so that a community hall was added to the rear in 1924, attached in 1947, according to Stanley Arnold Holling.

The property has contextual value as it is historically linked to the surrounding society it served. The church and hall hosted neighbourhood picnics; concerts; plays (entertaining 600); community meetings, including, Red Cross, Women's Institute, Oddfellows and Independent Order of Foresters; sports; Boy Scouts; Girl Guides; and the public library.

Further information respecting the notice of intention to designate the property is available from the municipality upon request at heritage.planning@mississauga.ca or 905-615-3200, ext. 4061.

Any notice of objection to this notice of intention to designate the property, setting out the reason for objection and all relevant facts, must be served upon the City Clerk within 30 days of the first publication of this notice. Notice of objection to the designation may be served on the City no later than 4:30 p.m. on September 3, 2026 to the following address: City Clerk, The Corporation of the City of Mississauga, 300 City Centre Drive, 2nd floor, Mississauga, ON, L5B 3C1.
